SECURITY CONSULTANTS' GATHERING IN SAN DIEGO
BREAKS ATTENDANCE RECORDS

(San Diego - April 26, 2011) -- It was a record-breaking attendance and sold-out exhibit hall at the Omni Hotel in San Diego for the 2011 Annual Conference of the International Association of Professional Security Consultants (IAPSC). World-class experts shared the latest developments in physical and digital security, dealing with an active shooter, analyzing crime data and they provided sound advice on making connections designed to lead to new business opportunities in the field of security consulting. "This was an outstanding mix of educational sessions and business guidance -- it was one of the best conferences I've attended," said Robert Owles, Jr., CSC, President of Owles Security Consulting, Inc. of Waco, Texas.

At the IAPSC Annual Business Meeting, held during the conference, Norman Bates, Esq. of Liability Consultants of Bolton, Massachusetts, completed a two-year term as president and the membership elected as its new president Richard Grassie, CPP, principal consultant of the newly-formed PRISM Security, Inc. in Plymouth, Massachusetts. Other officers elected include: Vice President: Frank Pisciotta, CSC, of Business Protection Specialists, Inc., in Raleigh, North Carolina; Treasurer: Harold Gillens, PSP, CFC, CHS-III of Quintech Security Consultants, Inc. in Summerville, South Carolina; Secretary: James Kelton, CISA, CGEIT, of Altius IT in Costa Mesa, California.

For outstanding achievement and exceptional leadership in IAPSC, the Association awarded its Meritorious Life Member Award to: James Clark, CPP, Clark Security Group, LLC in Avon Lake, Ohio.

The next IAPSC Annual Meeting will be held April 15-18, 2012 at the Marriott Eden Roc Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida.

About the International Association of Professional Security Consultants
